Turner Earns ISO Certifications for Anti-Bribery Management Systems and Compliance Management System

These certifications recognize Turner for having best-in-class processes.

June 17, 2024 – Turner Construction Company has earned the International Organization for Standardization (ISO) certifications ISO-37001 Anti-bribery Management System and ISO-37301 Compliance Management System after an independent audit of the company’s systems and processes. These certifications speak to the company’s deeply ingrained ethical standards, strong compliance programs, and its commitment to integrity.

“ISO certification is a great accomplishment for Turner,” said Patrick Blake, Turner’s Chief Compliance Officer. “Achieving the ISO-37001 and ISO-37301 certifications confirms that Turner has a robust ethics and compliance program to support our people in upholding our culture of integrity and honesty.”

“Our employees are obligated to maintain the highest standards of business conduct,” said Ken Winfield, Turner’s Director of Compliance. “The ISO certifications allow us to offer our clients even greater confidence in our ethical practices and compliance standards, further solidifying our commitment to building exceptional projects with trusted partners.”

ISO 37001 Certification recognizes Turner’s comprehensive anti-bribery management system, designed to prevent, detect, and address bribery risks throughout the organization. It also demonstrates Turner’s commitment to conducting business with integrity and adhering to anti-bribery laws and regulations globally.

ISO 37301 Certification validates Turner's effective compliance management system, ensuring adherence to all applicable laws, regulations, and internal policies. It creates a culture of compliance within Turner, empowering employees to identify and report potential compliance issues.

These certifications add to Turner's achievement of ISO certification for its Occupational Health and Safety Management System (ISO-45001) and for its Environmental Management System (ISO-14001).

About ISO

ISO is an independent, non-governmental international organization that brings together experts to share knowledge and develop voluntary, consensus-based, market relevant international standards that support innovation and provide solutions to global challenges.
