

17 OCTOBER 2019CIMIC GROUP'S BROAD TO DELIVER BRISBANE'S
INNER CITY SOUTH STATE SECONDARY COLLEGE

CIMIC Group company, and wholly owned subsidiary of CPB Contractors, Broad Construction (Broad), has been selected by the Queensland Government to deliver stages 1 and 2 of the new Inner City South State Secondary College in Dutton Park, Brisbane.

The project will generate revenue of approximately $110 million to the CIMIC Group.

CIMIC Group Chief Executive Officer Michael Wright said: "We are proud to bring CIMIC Group's leading building capability to deliver this important education facility, which will serve student and community needs now and for future generations.

"Backed by CPB Contractors, Broad is our specialist building company, and continues to deliver a range of quality social infrastructure and commercial building projects across Queensland and Western Australia."

CPB Contractors Managing Director Juan Santamaria said: "Our building expertise draws from an extensive track record of projects. The capability and experience of Broad's team provides certainty of safe, efficient delivery and value for our clients.

"We look forward to working closely with the Queensland Department of Education to deliver a world class teaching and learning environment for the students, staff and wider school community."

The new educational facilities include learning hubs, creative hub, multipurpose hall, administration and staff centre, canteen and health and wellbeing hub, learning plaza, outdoor areas, outdoor court, car-park, pick up and drop off zone and end of trip facilities.

Work on the Inner City South State Secondary College is scheduled to commence in 2019 and be completed in 2021.

The new school adds to Broad's portfolio of social infrastructure projects. In Queensland, these range from education projects, including Yarrabilba State High School, to the re-development of the Kingaroy Hospital.
